

The Birth of a Writer

Sherry Dixon, Author

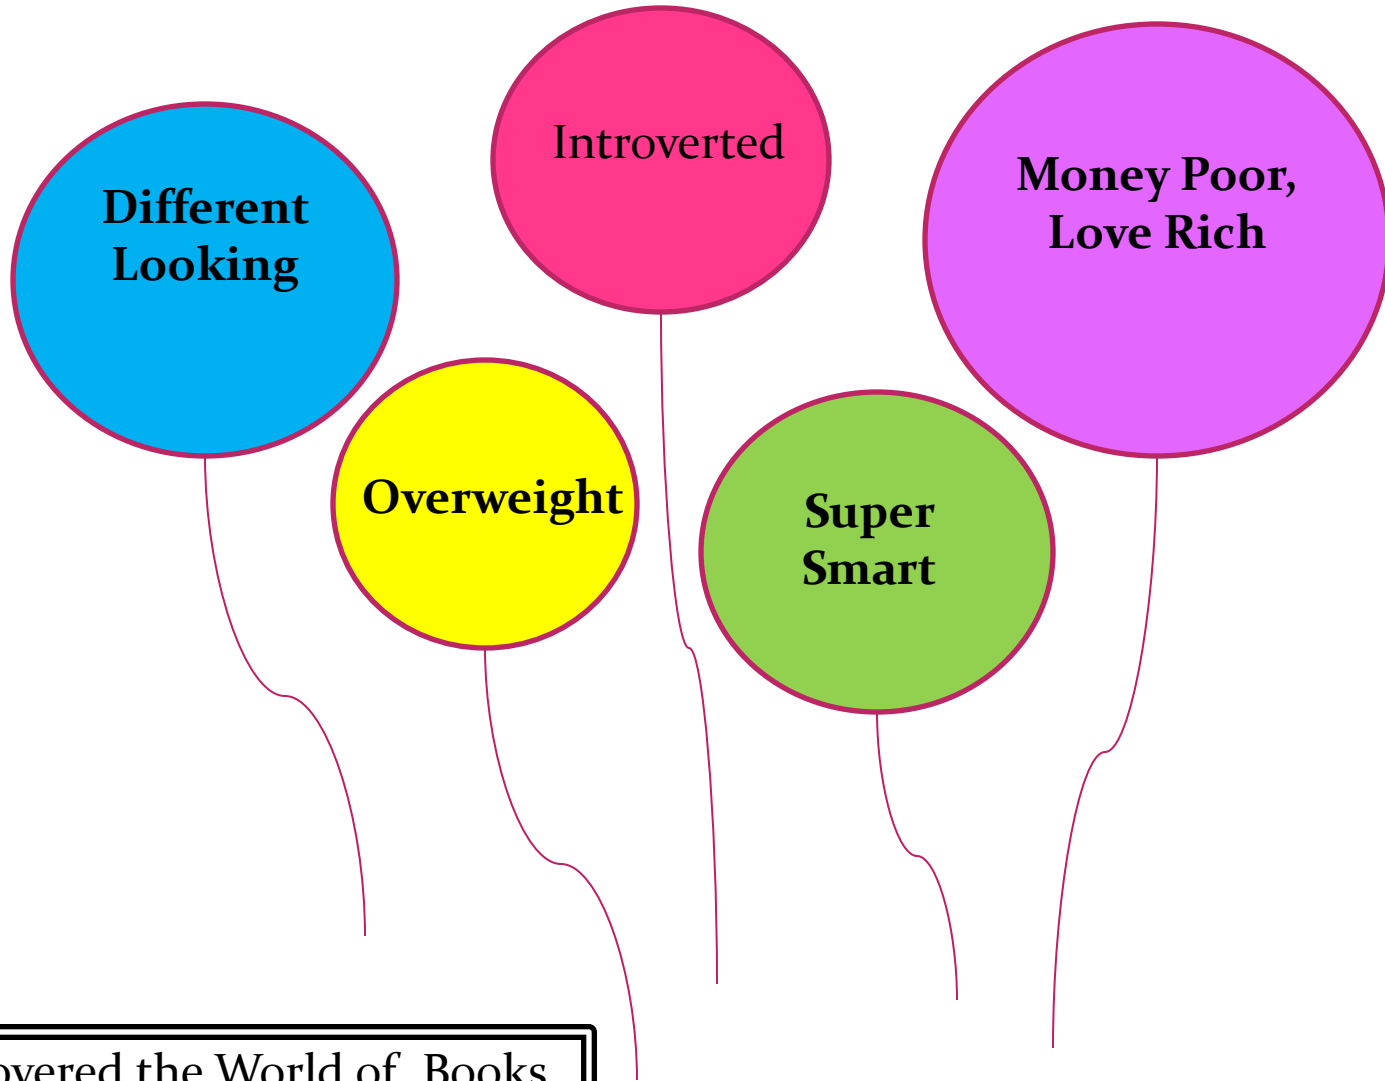

Guam Council of the International Reading Association

Thinker

Curious

Challenges Then – Blessings Now

Different Looking

Introverted

Money Poor,
Love Rich

Overweight

Super Smart

Discovered the World of Books

Escaped to the World of Writing

Stories were (and are) everywhere!

Amazing Thing Happened – Life
More Challenges → Blessings

Divorced, Became a
Single Parent

College Nights and Weekends - BS, MA

Full-time job

At the age of 34 I put myself away

Age 45 I found Don – after 11 years as a single parent

Age 50 I learned Mom's
Secret

Age 57, I found myself again

Nana Dee Series

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

May 2, 2013

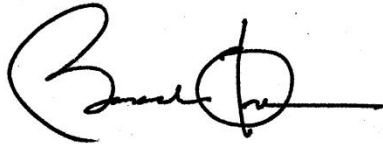

Ms. Sherry Dixon
Charleston, South Carolina

Dear Sherry:

This is just a quick note to thank you for your kind gift, and for sharing your mother's story with me. Each day, I am moved and inspired by the generosity of the American people, and I appreciate your thoughtful gesture.

Thank you again for your wonderful gift. I wish you all the best.

Sincerely,

The Future

